Sudbury Common Lands Charity
£3 per person

The charity manages the Stour river valley meadows in Sudbury and Cornard, continuing an ancient grazing tradition. It promotes the conservation of flora and fauna as well as providing excellent public access to the riverside. Many take for granted the 115 acres that make up the Sudbury Common Lands. Access to wander at will across similar tracts of unspoilt lowland river valley pasture can be enjoyed in few other places. Come and learn more about Sudbury's Common Lands by attending the talk - particularly useful if you crew the boats in Sudbury!

Please confirm attendance as soon as possible
