

2019 S2C LOCATIONS

Includes places where you can be met by family/friends during the event.

DAY 1 – SATURDAY 14 SEPTEMBER

Day 1, location 1- The Granary, Quay Lane, CO10 2AN – STARTING POINT

As in previous years, there is NO CAR PARKING at the Granary on Saturday morning due to lack of space.

- Friday (5pm-9.30pm) – You are able to drop off craft for overnight and secure storage (subject to available space) – you could pitch your tent at Rushbanks Friday night to save the task of erecting it when you arrive on Saturday (£7.50 for unoccupied pitch)!
- Registration (8am-10.30am)
- Checkpoint & Departure (8.30am-10.30am)

Directions from Sudbury town centre: follow the signs to the Quay Theatre. You can also walk from the long stay car park near the Kingfisher Leisure Centre (see map below).

The nearest long stay car park is at Station Road Car Park (also known as Kingfisher Car Park due to its proximity of the Kingfisher Leisure Centre). Details as below or more information at:

<http://www.babergh.gov.uk/communities/parking/babergh-car-and-lorry-parks/>

- Maximum Stay: 24 to 72 hours (paid tickets) and 3 hours (free tickets) during ticketing hours, otherwise 24 hours. No return within 4 hours.

- Tariff (no charge for disabled persons, provided that a valid blue badge is on display):

Up to 3 hours – FREE / 24 hours - £2 / 48 hours - £4 / 72 hours - £6

- Payment Type: Coins (at ticket machine) or credit/debit card (via RingGo - location code 2537)

OR park in the Anglia Adventures compound at the end at Cattawade until Sunday (open 5pm - dusk on Fri, and 7.30 - 10am on Sat). Directions to the Anglia Adventures site: Postcode C011 1QR gets participants close to the industrial estate, need to continue towards Manningtree and look for wooden gates on a road corner with an S2C sign.
